A NEW HUE

"Vivid color has returned to the runways and I wanted to feature it in new and unexpected ways. I don't expect the average consumer to be sporting blue cheeks, but if it gets her to toss out her beige eye shadow and rethink blue as an option, then I've done my job." - David Maderich

"David's colorful play with makeup reminded me of graffiti. I used contrasting colors and texture to give the hair a youthful street edge. The combination of color and texture is very of the moment." - Barbara Lhotan
